Mission Connect

Missions is often considered cross-cultural in bringing the Good News to people who do not have Jesus and the church in their backgrounds. IPC Missions currently has six programs we support in this effort to share the love of Christ to others. One group is Hope Unlimited. They are in Sao Paulo Brazil focused on children living in the barrios. Many are rescued from trafficking, exploitation and street life and given shelter, training and hope. IPC has been supporting this ministry since its founding in 1991. IPC sends valentines day cards to them annually recognizing Brazil celebrates valentines day in June. More info www.hopeunlimited.org

Devotional for the Week

Theme: When God Moves, Nothing Stays the Same

Scripture: "Tremble, earth, at the presence of the Lord." —Psalm 114:7

When God moves, seas part, hard places become springs, and hearts are made new. God's presence does not leave us unchanged; it leads us from fear to trust, from bondage to freedom, and from resentment to forgiveness. This week, ask God to move in one place where you need courage, healing, or grace.

Daily Reflections

Mon: Trust that God goes before you.

Tue: Pray for the sea before you to part.

Wed: Pause in awe of God's presence.

Thu: Ask what God is freeing you from.

Fri: Offer mercy as you have received mercy.

Sat: Give thanks for one sign of change.

Prayer: Lord, move in us this week. Set us free, teach us to forgive, and make us more like Christ. Amen.
