Mission Connect

Missions is separate from the General Fund so that it cannot be diverted in hard times. It reflects our commitment to share God's good news to those in other cultures who do not have Christ as part of their area. We are looking for folks to help us find and vet ministries to do this work. Contact Elder Ronnie Fong for more information

IPC Missions currently has six programs we support in this effort to share the love of Christ to others. We need to pray for them. Hope Unlimited in Brazil. Witnessing Ministries of Christ in India. This week spotlight is on Rancho Santa Marta, a ministry in Mexico offering Christ-centered care to at risk, abandoned and special needs children in a home setting. IPC has done several short-term mission trips to help in the past. More info

Devotional for the Week

Remember → Trust → Become → Obey

This week, take time each day to let God's story shape your memory, strengthen your trust, form your character, and move you toward faithful obedience.

Monday — Remember the Story

Read Psalm 78:1–4. Faith is strengthened when we remember what God has done. Today, recall one way God has been faithful in your life, your family, or this church community. Do not rush past it. Let memory become worship and let gratitude become a witness.

Prayer: Faithful God, help me remember Your goodness and tell of Your mighty acts with gratitude and joy. Amen.

Tuesday — Trust God in the Wilderness

Read Exodus 17:1–7. The wilderness can make scarcity feel stronger than grace. Israel asked, "Is the Lord among us or not?" When you face uncertainty, bring your thirst honestly before God. Trust that the same God who brought water from the rock is present in your need.

Prayer: God of mercy, meet me in dry places and teach my heart to trust You one step at a time. Amen.

Wednesday — Receive Grace Again

Read Psalm 78:12–16. God gave water not because the people were perfect, but because God is faithful. Today, notice where you are tempted to measure God's mercy by your own performance. Receive again the grace that comes before, beneath, and beyond your strength.

Prayer: Gracious God, thank You that Your faithfulness is greater than my weakness. Help me rest in Your mercy. Amen.

Thursday — Let Christ Form Your Character

Read Philippians 2:1–11. The humility of Christ is not only something we admire; it is the pattern we are invited to practice. Look for one concrete way today to value another person, serve without needing recognition, or choose patience over pride.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, give me Your mind and shape my life with humility, mercy, and love. Amen.

Friday — Work Out What God Works In

Read Philippians 2:12–13. Discipleship is not self-improvement by willpower. God is at work in you, shaping your desires and strengthening your obedience. Ask where God may be inviting you to cooperate with His work today.

Prayer: Holy Spirit, work in me so that my desires, words, and actions reflect the way of Christ. Amen.

Saturday — Obey with Your Whole Life

Read Matthew 21:28–32. Jesus reminds us that faithful words must become faithful lives. Where have you said "yes" to God but delayed obedience? Today is an invitation to turn, follow, and let grace shape your next step.

Prayer: Merciful Father, turn my heart toward Your will and help me obey with honesty, courage, and joy. Amen.
