“Much More to Say”: Divine Disruption

John 16:12-15

God’s divine disruption is to __________________________________________.

2 Corinthians 3:17 (NIV) Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

1. To ____________________________________________________________.

John 16:13 (NIV) But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come.

2. To ____________________________________________________________.

Ephesians 1:13–14 (NIV) When you believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God’s possession—to the praise of his glory.

John 16:13 (NIV) He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come.

3. To ____________________________________________________________.

John 16:15 (NIV) All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will receive from me what he will make known to you.”

4. To ____________________________________________________________.

1 Corinthians 12:7 (NIV) Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good.
