The Rev. Margaret H. Gelini currently serves as a Palliative Care Chaplain at a medical center in San Francisco. She offers patients and their families spiritual and emotional support around the common human need for meaning, connection and inner peace in the face of serious illness. She is a Board-Certified Chaplain with the Association of Professional Chaplains and an ordained minister with the Presbyterian Church (USA). Margaret earned her Master of Divinity Degree from Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena and holds a Bachelor of Science in Commerce from Santa Clara University. Prior to serving as a Chaplain, Margaret served in a variety of pastoral roles for nearly 25 years with congregations in both California and Washington states. Additionally, her background includes leadership roles with non-profits spanning healthcare, social services, and educational institutions. Margaret makes her home in the Oakland Hills with her husband, Chris (also a pastor), their 19-year-old daughter and seven-year-old Yorkshire Terrier, named Quincy. She enjoys cooking, gardening, trying new recipes and connecting with her friends and family.
